

Dr. Rajkumari, a faculty member specializing in the Teaching of Social Science, holds multiple advanced degrees including M.A. in History and Sociology, M.Lib.Sc., M.Ed., M.Phil., and a Ph.D. in Education. With over 08 years of teaching experience at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, she has also participated and presented papers in national and international seminars and conferences. Her publication work includes 17 book chapters and 35 research papers in UGC approved & Peer Review Journals, and actively participates in academic committees at Departmental level. A committed educator, she has completed two online pedagogical courses via SWAYAM and contributes significantly to institutional development and academic innovation.