

With over 10 years of teaching experience in Social Studies and Education at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, Dr. Sunita has supervised 9 dissertations and currently guides 4 students. She has been honoured with the Teaching Excellence Award and Best Paper Presentation Award for her academic contributions. She has actively participated in 36 national seminars, published 21 research papers in UGC-approved and peer-reviewed journals, and contributed one book and 15 book chapters. She holds life membership in GERA and serves as Convenor of the I-Card Committee, while contributing to several institutional committees. Her published patent explores AI applications in human practice and future challenges.